John H. McCooey, Brooklyn's Democratic leader, and William J. Heffernan. Mr. Griffin said Mrs. Hook told him that somebody broke into her establishment and stole the original letters.

One of the photographed letters, dated August 7, 1914, alleged to have been written to Senator Heffernan by H. E. Cole, then Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture, the photographed copy showing the initials "H. E. C." in the lower left hand corner, was put into the record as follows: ord as follows:

"MY DEAR SENATOR: Commissioner Huson requests me to say to you that the case against Antonio and Dora Castellin of 937 Third avenue, Brooklyn, will not be prosecuted, as it has been discontinued."

They were accused of selling impure olive oil.

A letter bearing the date August 1, 1914, and the alleged signature of John H. McCooey was read as follows:
"MY DEAR COMMISSIONER: Allow me to fransmit for your information a notice which was served on Mr. Henry Holtman of 1513 Broadway, Brooklyn, calling for the remittance of $50 as a pensity for having sold process butter which was not branded as required by the statutes. I do not believe he would intentionally commit an infraction of the agricultural laws, and I am informed he has already taken steps to remedy exagricultural laws, and I am informed he has aiready taken steps to remedy extinting conditions. This being his first offence, as I notice none other recorded in your office, I will greatly appreciate of any courtesy you can properly extend to the end that the action mentioned in this iransaction may be determined by mustual agreement. With best wishes, &c."

This reply, purporting to be by Mr. Cole, next went in:

The case has been dis-continued."

Photographs of letters supposed to have passed between Cole and Swift & Co. also became documentary evidence. One reproduction with Cole's signature
